Nominating, Governance and Compliance Committee Charter

September 30, 2024

Purpose

The Nominating, Governance and Compliance Committee (the “Committee”) is appointed by the Board to:

- a. Identify individuals qualified to become Board members, consistent with criteria approved by the Board;
- b. Recommend that the Board select Director nominees for election at the annual meeting of shareholders or to fill vacancies on the Board between such meetings;
- c. Develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance principles applicable to the Company;
- d. Oversee the evaluation of the Board; and
- e. Assume a leadership role in the Company’s corporate governance.

Authority

The Committee has authority to take appropriate actions necessary to discharge its responsibilities. Such authority includes but is not limited to the power to:

- a. Retain outside counsel, accountants, outside advisors, consultants or others to assist in the conduct of an investigation or as it determines appropriate to advise or assist in the performance of its functions. The Committee shall have sole authority to retain and terminate any search firm to be used to identify Director Candidates, including sole authority to approve the search firm’s fees and other retention terms.
- b. Seek any information it requires from employees or external parties. Employees and external parties will be directed to cooperate and comply with the Committee’s requests.
- c. Meet with the senior internal auditor, Company Officers, external auditors or outside counsel or other advisors, as necessary.

Composition

The Committee shall have at least two members, all of whom shall meet the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange, and as determined by the Board. The independent Directors of the Board, after due consideration, shall appoint the chair and members of the Committee. The Committee Chair has the authority to convene meetings, set agendas, form and delegate to sub-Committees and determine the Committee’s information needs.

Any action duly taken by the Committee shall be valid and effective, whether or not the members of the Committee at the time of such action are later determined not to have satisfied the requirement for membership provided herein.

Meetings

The Committee shall meet as often as may be deemed necessary or appropriate in its judgment, either in person or telephonically, and at such times and places as the Committee shall determine. The Committee shall make regular reports to the Board with respect to its activities.

Responsibilities

Among its specific responsibilities, the Committee shall:

Director Nominations

1. Establish criteria and qualifications for Board membership, including standards for assessing independence, and recommend all such criteria, qualifications and standards for approval by the Board. These criteria and qualifications shall include, among other things:
 - a. The highest ethical standards and integrity;
 - b. A willingness to act on and be accountable for Board decisions;
 - c. An ability to provide wise, informed and thoughtful counsel to top management on a range of issues;
 - d. A history of achievement that reflects superior standards for themselves and others;
 - e. Loyalty and commitment to driving the success of the Company;
 - f. An ability to take tough positions while at the same time working as a team player; and
 - g. Individual backgrounds that provide a portfolio of diverse experience, backgrounds and knowledge commensurate with the Company's needs.
2. Identify and consider candidates, including those recommended by shareholders and others, to fill positions on the Board, and assess the contributions and independence of incumbent Directors, as well as specific experience, qualifications, attributes and skills of all candidates (including incumbent Directors), in determining whether to recommend them for election or reelection to the Board; including:
 - a. Annually reviewing the relationships between Directors, the Company and management and recommending to the Board whether each Director qualifies as "independent" under the Board's definition of "independence" and the applicable rules of the NYSE; and
 - b. Developing, in consultation with management, and periodically reviewing the Company's policies and procedures for the receipt of shareholder suggestions regarding Board composition and recommendations of candidates for nomination by the Board.

3. Recommend to the Board candidates for election or reelection at each annual general meeting of shareholders, and recommend to the Board candidates to fill Board vacancies. Review Company disclosure concerning the specific experience, qualifications, attributes or skills that led to the conclusion that each nominee should serve as a Director in light of the Company's business and structure. (The requirement that the Committee recommend candidates to the Board is subject to any rights regarding the selection of Directors by holders of preferred shares and any other contractual or other commitments of the Company.)
4. Recommend to the Board candidates for appointment to the Management Development and Compensation Committee, Audit Committee, Nominating, Governance and Compliance Committee, and Joint Committee on Cybersecurity and for appointment as chair of each of these Committees, and to consider periodic rotation of Committee members. The Chair of the Nominating, Governance and Compliance Committee and its members shall be appointed by the independent Directors of the Board.
5. Review annually Director time commitment levels and if all directors are currently compliant with the time limits set forth in the Company's Board Governance Principles.
6. Assess the appropriateness of a Director's continuation of service where the Director has tendered his or her resignation upon a change in his or her employment or professional responsibilities, and recommend to the Board any action to be taken with respect to a letter of resignation submitted by such Director.

Corporate Governance

7. Review annually the Company's corporate governance processes, and its governance principles and framework, including such issues as the Board's organization, leadership, membership terms, and the structure and frequency of Board meetings, and recommend appropriate changes to the Board, including:
 - a. Developing, in consultation with management, and recommending to the Board a set of corporate governance guidelines applicable to the Company;
 - b. Reviewing on a regular basis the overall corporate governance of the Company and, in consultation with management, recommending improvements where necessary;
 - c. Discussing the relationship between the Board's leadership structure and its role in providing oversight of risk, and recommending changes where needed; and
 - d. Reviewing Company disclosures relating to Board leadership.

8. Develop, in consultation with management, orientation programs for new Directors and identify appropriate development and continuing education opportunities for Directors.
9. Annually review the functions of the Board and its Committees, as set forth in the Company's Memorandum and Articles of Association, the Board Governance Principles and the Committees' respective charters, and coordinate and oversee annual self-assessments of the Board's performance and procedures, the performance of individual Board members and each Committee of the Board. In particular, the self-assessment will solicit feedback from the Directors about:
 - a. Overall effectiveness
 - b. Composition, leadership and structure
 - c. Culture
 - d. Focus
 - e. Information and resources
 - f. Process
10. Review and ratify the Company's annual charitable contributions budget, as developed by Global Government Affairs and Corporate Responsibility and approved by General Counsel, and quarterly approve any charitable donation made by the Company, including matching donations, to an organization in which a TE Connectivity director, or their immediate family members, serves as a director, trustee, executive, advisor, or in other capacities with the organization. Charitable director matching gift donations by the Company are limited to matching donations in an amount no greater than the amount contributed by the director and are required to be made in a manner consistent with TE Connectivity's employee matching gift program.
11. Annually assess the Committee's performance of the duties specified in this Charter and the Board Governance Principles and report its findings to the Board.
12. Determine, where a Director, the Chief Executive Officer or other Senior Executive intends to serve on another board of directors, or a committee thereof, whether such service may give rise to possible conflicts of interest or time constraint issues.
13. Monitor governance rating agencies and their assessments of the Company's governance, and proxy advisory services policies, and make recommendations as appropriate to the Board.

Compliance

14. Review and approve or ratify related person transactions required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404 of Regulation S-K under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
15. Review conflicts of interest of Board members and senior Executives, in collaboration with the Audit Committee, and initiate appropriate action to address any such conflicts. Review annually the processes by which conflicts are to be identified and recommend improvements where appropriate.

16. Annually review and assess the effectiveness of the Company's Environmental, Health, & Safety management program and recommend improvements where appropriate. Review and address as appropriate issues that arise with respect to the effectiveness of such programs. Review reports of any fine or penalty exceeding $100,000. Environmental, health and safety fines or penalties greater than $20 million must be approved by the Board of Directors.
17. Annually review and assess the effectiveness of the Company's enterprise-wide risk assessment processes and recommend improvements where appropriate. Review and address as appropriate issues that arise with respect to the effectiveness of such programs.
18. Periodically review and assess the effectiveness of the Company's compliance programs and recommend improvements where appropriate. Receive and review periodic compliance reports from the Company's Chief Compliance Officer. Review and address as appropriate issues that arise with respect to the effectiveness of such programs.
19. Periodically receive and review reports from the Company's responsible executive regarding the Company's programs, strategies and performance with respect to significant sustainability and environmental, social and governance ("ESG") matters and the associated risks and opportunities. Review and address as appropriate issues that arise with respect to such ESG risks and strategies, and the effectiveness of such ESG programs. Meet review and discuss, as determined to be appropriate, and recommend to the Board, ESG reports requiring Board approval.
20. Regularly report to the Board about Committee activities, issues and related recommendations, and maintain minutes or other records of Committee meetings and activities.
21. Annually review and assess the adequacy of this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board.
22. Select, monitor, evaluate, compensate and, if necessary, replace the Company Chief Compliance Officer and, quarterly, or upon request by the Committee or the Chief Compliance Officer, meet with the Chief Compliance Officer in a separate executive session.
